

SMART

Self Management And Recovery Training

4- Point Programme

- 1 - Building & Maintaining Motivation
- 2 - Coping with Urges
- 3 - Managing Thoughts, Feelings & Behaviours
- 4 - Living a Balanced Life

No matter what your addiction,
you are not alone.

We focus our meetings on the present and the future, not the past.

Interested in becoming a Peer SMART Facilitator?

We are always looking to develop new Peer SMART Facilitators to enable us to run more groups. If you are in advanced stages of your recovery and would like to inspire others, then this could be for you. If you are interested in developing your skills in SMART further and beginning the on-line training, please speak to your facilitator or contact:

Information

All meetings are for people aged 18+

No appointments necessary

All are welcome

We are unable to permit late entry into meetings.
We politely ask that you respect this.

For all meetings please ensure you arrive promptly. If you are new to the meetings please arrive early on your first visit, so you can be welcomed.

We understand that you may currently be reducing substance use, but please don't go 'over the top' before attending a meeting – it can have a negative impact on others who wish to become/remain abstinent.

On-line Meetings can also be accessed on the UK SMART Recovery website:
